

Hands off the phone. Eyes on the road.

Massachusetts law now prohibits drivers from using any hand-held electronic device while driving.

Police will pull over and issue fines to drivers holding a cellphone or wireless device. Second offenders will be required to take a distracted driving class, and third offenders could face higher insurance premiums.

DO YOUR PART TO REDUCE DISTRACTED DRIVING

Learn more at AAA.com/MAHandsFree